Dear Dejana Radisavljevic,

Thank you for contacting us and sharing your proposals to amend CITES Appendices I and II for marine species.

We have circulated your proposals to our Members for their consideration but to date have received no scientific data or suggestions on the species you proposed.

Please be informed that most of our scientific efforts are currently focused on eight priority species occurring in our CA, North Pacific, among which are North Pacific armorhead and splendid alfonsino as major target species for bottom fisheries, and Pacific saury and chub mackerel for pelagic fisheries.

Best wishes for the success of your conference.

Sincerely,

Dae Yeon Moon
